

Subject: Prayer Alert: Belarus

Reply-To: Jews for Jesus Newsletter <jfj@jewsforjesus.org>

Dear Jeannetta,

On August 9, the former Soviet Republic of Belarus held elections, and the current president remained in power. As a result, thousands of people took to the streets in protest. Troops soon filled those same streets, martial law was declared, and stern restrictions on outside communications through the web and internet were imposed.

Please pray for the safety of the population overall, and especially for believers. Pray that the gospel hope will be shared in the midst of it all. Pray that the Lord will protect and grant wisdom to our Jews for Jesus coworkers and their families in this troubled land.

To aid you in praying for our colleagues, please use the following pseudonyms (the Lord knows their real names):

Leonid, Veronika, Sara, Saul
Edik, Irina, Pavel
Sasha, Svetlana
Anatoli, Viktoria

THANK YOU!
